

"... the best support I receive comes from connecting with other families that are traveling on this similar road..."

- Mother of a Child with Down Syndrome

~Pathways Beyond Grief and the New Paths Group ~

- Pathways Beyond Grief and New Paths each offer a comfortable and supportive environment where you can share the joy and grief of caring for a child with special needs, and learn from others walking the same road as you.
- Together, with 6 - 10 other parents and a specially- trained counseling professional, you will address specific issues faced by families on this unique journey.
- It is a beginning place to realize that hope and loss can co-exist.
