Network of Care
for Developmental Disabilities

Network of Care for Developmental Disabilities is a "No Wrong Door" online information place for the individuals, families and agencies involved with developmental disabilities. This online community provides critical information, communication and advocacy tools with a single point of entry.

This remarkable Web site can greatly assist in finding needed information, support and the right services at the right time for a person with developmental disabilities. Network of Care enables the community of services to better coordinate around the needs of people with developmental disabilities.

"Information and knowing how to use it are almost as important as quality services. People involved with developmental disabilities in California will be pleasantly surprised with the Network of Care. Trilogy has produced an online library of information that will impact lives. Everybody who uses it will find something that is useful to them. This is the beginning of something significant."

Mike Danneker, Executive Director
Westside Regional Center
Los Angeles County, California
