Disabled Student Programs & Services

Welcome to the Glendale Community College Center for Students with Disabilities!

It is our mission to ensure that students with disabilities are all given equal opportunity to earn a quality education at GCC. We offer our support both to GCC students with disabilities and to the staff and faculty with whom they work.

The CSD Faculty was honored with the Exemplary Program Award at the 2006 Graduation Ceremony

The CSD provides a comprehensive spectrum of services and accommodations, including the following:

- academic and personal counseling
- disability assessment
- adapted computer technology and instruction
- academic support and instruction
- alternate media
- adapted physical education
- interpreter and note taking services
- information and assistance to faculty
- collaboration with Department of Rehabilitation
- mobility assistance
