Southern California Resource Services-Independent Living

Assistive Technology is any tool, piece of equipment or service designed to help people of any age who may have disabilities or limitations, to develop, maintain or improve the ability to function in everyday life.

"I have hope again."

SCRS-IL is a leader in offering public education and outreach to those in need of Assistive Technology resources. Assistance ranges from services, advocacy and service coordination to information and referral.

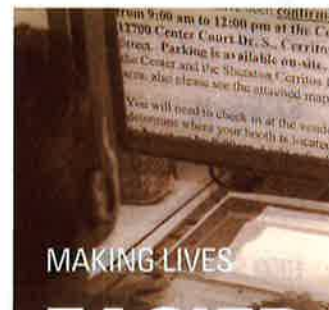

FUNDING & GRANTS SCRS-IL assists with locating resources from various funding sources to meet the needs of consumers. These grants can range from simple technology and medical equipment to home modifications and more unique and unusual items.

MEDICAL DEVICES SCRS-IL has access to thousands of pieces of equipment through a state-wide lending library for those who wish to borrow or try a medical device. SCRS-IL also has loans and maintains a Re-Use Program of Durable Medical Equipment at no charge to consumers.

ASSESSMENT & EVALUATION

Information and referral is provided about AT services and equipment. We make referrals for assessments and evaluations, and discuss funding alternatives with consumers, family members and service providers.
