JOB PLACEMENT & TRAINING

Employment Services

SCRS-IL

Southern California Resource Services-Independent Living

We understand today's competitive workplace challenges and can provide you with tools and help you cultivate skills for the right job.

How? Through our Employment Specialists, many of whom have disabilities, the partnerships we have developed with businesses, and the productivity of those who have been placed in positions through this program.

We will help you find work,
and...

- Build Self Confidence
- Overcome Barriers to Employment
- Perfect the Job Application & Interviewing
- Write a Resume and Cover Letter
- Develop Job Leads & Community Resources

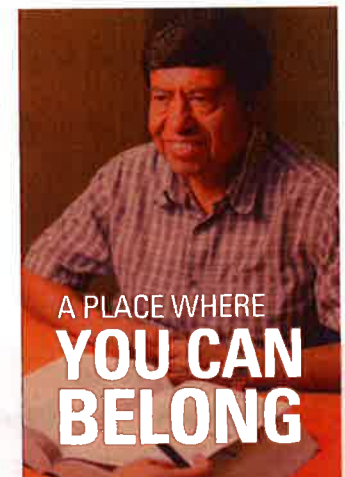

Helping you obtain and maintain a job is the main goal of SCRS-IL and its partnership with the California Department of Rehabilitation.

A DOR counselor will conduct an evaluation of your strengths, skills and experience and develop a personalized employment plan with you.

After your plan is complete, you may request to be referred to an Employment Specialist at SCRS-IL who will help you address your vocational goals and assist you along the way.

Who Is Eligible? Anyone who...

Has a disability • Wants to work • Has trouble getting or keeping a job because of a disability • Believes vocational services such as job placement, training and other job development programs would help them get a job
