

Summer Camps & Activities 2022

<https://www.dannysfarm.org/>

“Danny’s Farm exemplifies sustainable farming practices, and inspires and educates about our relationship with natural environments.”

Petting Farms are not offered, but are available with the following organizations:

<https://www.specialspirit.org/the-learning-ranch-tours-events>

<https://cppdiscoveryfarm.com/petting-farm/>

<https://www.miracleleaguela.org/>

“Providing children with special needs the chance to play baseball regardless of the physical and/or mental barriers that would prevent them from doing so in a traditional league.

Teaching understanding and inclusion by allowing children from the community to interact and build lifelong bonds with special needs children in ways that they might not otherwise have the opportunity to.”

Payment Required (financial aid available)

<https://lacountylibrary.beanstack.com/reader365>

“Join us for our summer celebration of reading and exploration! Log books you read, complete fun activities, and discover all the resources the Library has to offer. You can even win prizes, like books, and be entered into drawings along the way.”

<https://www.laparks.org/day-camps-summer-winter>

<https://www.swimla.org/>

LA Parks and Recreation offers programs such as aquatics, Day Camps, Afterschool programs, sports for youth, Girl Play Los Angeles, and also Dodgers RBI program. (Confirm activities with your local park)

LA Parks has a website dedicated to swimming activities and their pools

Payment required for most activities

<https://minibopmusic.com/>

Minibop Music will be partnering with the Grammy Museum for Sensory Friendly Saturdays. The next workshop will be on June 11th and future events will be on the 2nd Saturday of each month. The events are free!

Ages 1-14 can participate in the free music class.

Registration in advanced is appreciated:

https://grammymuseum.formstack.com/forms/sensory_friendly_saturdays

<https://galileo-camps.com/>

Several locations throughout in Southern California, especially two locations in Pasadena and Burbank.

“With programs that combine elements of science, art, engineering, and design curriculum, Galileo kids grow and cultivate curiosity, teamwork and resourcefulness during their camp experience”

Payment Required

<https://lacountylibrary.org/summerlunch/>

“This summer at select locations, kids and teens 18 and under can pick up free lunch at the library, in partnership with the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank (locations coming soon).

From June 13 – August 5, meals are available on a first come, first served basis from 12 – 1 pm, either Mon – Fri or Tue – Fri, depending on the location.

There are no restrictions on family income. Parents & caregivers can pick up on behalf of children; kids and teens don’t need to be present, but are welcome!”

<https://www.cityofpasadena.net/parks-and-rec/>

A variety of Summer activities offered throughout the Summer. Activities for toddlers-teenagers.

Activities include day camps, swimming, sports, arts & craft, dancing, and music.

Payment required for some activities

<https://www.glendaleca.gov/government/departments/community-services-parks/recreation-programs>

A variety of Summer activities offered throughout the Summer. Activities for toddlers-teenagers.

Activities include day camps, swimming, sports, arts & craft, dancing, and music.

Payment required for some activities

<https://farmersmarketla.com/events/summer-music-2022>

Free music at The Original Farmers Market every Thursday from 6-8 pm. Series will end on August 25th.

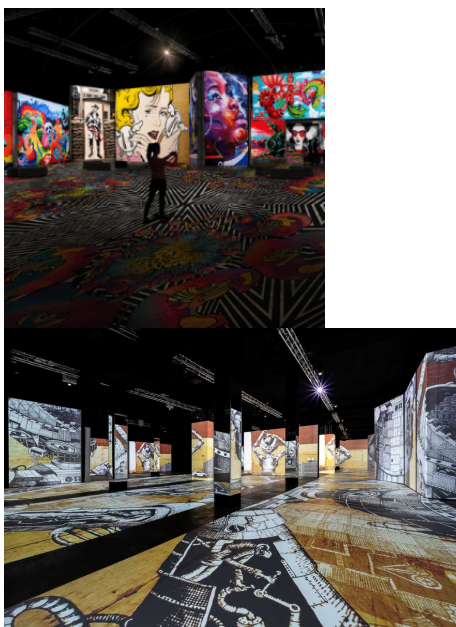

<https://inclusionmatters.org/my-playclub/>

Play-dates at local parks. Next event is on June 25th at Griffith Park. "My PlayClub brings together kids of all abilities at the playground to play together. We provide crafts, tattoos, stories, and snacks."

Registration is required.

Inclusion Matters also has a Zoom series called Fun4All. Recorded videos are on their website.

<https://thelume.com/losangeles/>

Digital art exhibit featuring street art from all over the world.

Located inside The Reef in downtown LA.

Payment required

<https://aforestla.com/>

Immersive digital forest including “animatronic performing trees, illusions of fire, and interactive sound sculptures, all hidden within a 28,000-square-foot space in downtown Los Angeles”

Payment required, but free for children under 6 years old

<https://www.burbankca.gov/web/parks-recreation/playmore>

A variety of Summer activities offered throughout the Summer. Activities for toddlers-teenagers.

Activities include day camps, swimming, sports, arts & craft, dancing, and music.

Payment required for some activities