

proudly present
AN INTERACTIVE CONCERT
for Individuals with Autism and their Families

♦ ADMISSION IS FREE ♦

featuring
THE LYRIS QUARTET

The Lyris Quartet is a Los Angeles based string quartet. The quartet was created from a conversation between violinist Alyssa Park, who has enjoyed an illustrious career as an international soloist, and violinist Shalini Vijayan, who has built a career as an advocate of modern music as a member of Grammy- nominated groups. Drawing on their diverse backgrounds, these musicians chose to create a string quartet that could encompass their love for both standard and modern repertoire and commission works from living composers. Violinist Luke Maurer and cellist Timothy Loo joined the group, and Lyris was formally founded in 2008.

The Lyris Quartet has performed at the most prestigious chamber music venues in Los Angeles, including the Bing Theater at Los Angeles County Museum of Art, the Broad Stage, Zipper Hall at The Colburn School, Royce Hall and Disney Hall.

Sunday, MARCH 3rd, 2013

1:00PM

THE HELP GROUP AUTISM CENTER THEATER

13164 Burbank Blvd, Sherman Oaks, California 91401

For more information please visit www.musicforautism.org or www.thehelpgroup.org

Music for Autism concerts are fully subsidized and free for all individuals with autism and their family members, but RSVPs are essential. Please RSVP under the "Concert Calendar" on www.musicforautism.org (preferred) or by calling 877.863.7473 x1.

This concert has been generously co-sponsored by The Help Group.

Music for Autism is raising public awareness and enriching lives through autism-friendly, interactive concerts developed specifically for individuals with autism and their families. The concerts, held in the United States and the United Kingdom, feature professional musicians, including Tony Award winners and Grammy-nominated classical artists.