Parents of a boy on the autism spectrum form a competitive swim team, recruiting other teens on the spectrum and training them with high expectations and zero pity. SWIM TEAM chronicles the extraordinary rise of three diverse young athletes, capturing a moving quest for inclusion, independence and a life that feels winning.

"A film that's both eye-opening and heart-opening"
- RogertEbert.com

"At its most effective, 'Swim Team' treats its subjects as would any sports movie attuned to character and drama"
- The New York Times
