

The ARCA Web Academies continue! Based on your feedback, the day and time has changed. Our next event is set for Tuesday, January 11th, from 6-7:30pm. The topic will be the last in a three-part series about community and regional center services. This time, we'll look at Academy will be about "Meeting the service needs of all ages." This final event will cover the ways adults' service goals are met.

We'll explore how regional centers meet the needs of adults, including living options, employment and other daytime service opportunities, and future planning for the entire lifespan.

Register For The January 11th Webinar!

This event is open to all regional center board members. Live breakout discussion sessions, as well as a Q & A, will be provided. You must register in advance to sign up for the event on Tuesday, January 11th, from 6-7:30pm. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email with more information.

A re-broadcast will be available on Wednesday, December 12th, from 6-7:30pm. Live breakout discussion sessions will be provided. Please register in advance for this meeting.