

CLUB 21 SUMMER SYMPOSIUM

Reflecting on Challenging Behavior in Young Children

Keynote Speaker: Linda Brault

Based on her book, Children with Challenging Behavior: Strategies for Reflective Thinking.

- Date: Saturday, July 16
- Time: 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
- Place: Fuller Seminary
135 N. Oakland, Pasadena
- Cost: Members: $30 per person/
$50 per couple
Non-members: $40 per person/
$60 per couple

Linda Brault, a Senior Program Associate with WestEd, has been working with young children and their families for over 30 years.

Brault also co-chairs the California project of the Center on the Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning, which promotes the social-emotional development and school readiness of young children from birth to age 5.

She has had several books published including: Children with Challenging Behavior: Strategies for Reflective Thinking, which she coauthored with her husband, Tom.

Materials and a continental breakfast and lunch courtesy of the National Charity League of Pasadena are included.

What Will I Learn From These Workshops?

Understanding Behavior from the Outside In:

- Provide an overview of factors contributing to challenging behavior in young children
- Systematically examine how external and internal factors impact behavior
- Examine emotional reactions to challenging behavior
- Provide strategies and tools that promote and utilize reflective thinking
- Outline methods to develop positive behavior plans that are reflective and respectful of the child, family and early educators

Concepts Covered in This Symposium:

- Contributing factors to challenging behavior
- Who challenges you and why
- Your own emotional reactions to behavior
- Why children engage in challenging behavior
- Reflective tools and techniques
- How to implement these practices

This Symposium is not disability specific.

Contact: kathy@clubtwentyone.org or (626) 844-1821

