

“What to know...”

In Collaboration with Los Angeles Police Department
Senior Lead Officer, Julian Canales, Detective Support and Vice Division Mental Evaluation Unit

SAFETY AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

If your family member is in crisis and is a danger to themselves or others...

- What to expect...
- How to respond...
- Who will respond to your crisis?
- How to help people with disabilities interact with police...
- How to prepare yourself if you have to call for police assistance...
 - 12 Tips
 - Checklist

WHEN:

SPANISH: Tuesday, February 28, 2017, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Register online: www.fdlrc-safety-law-spa.eventbrite.com

ENGLISH: Thursday, March 2, 2017, 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Register online: www.fdlrc-safety-law-eng.eventbrite.com

KOREAN: Friday, March 3, 2017, 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Register online: www.fdlrc-safety-law-kor.eventbrite.com

WHERE:

Lanterman Regional Center, 3303 Wilshire Blvd.,
3rd Floor ~ Berendo Room, Los Angeles, CA 90010

Follow-up Q/A sessions will be hosted by individual support groups and open to the public. Please see support group listing for schedules at www.lanterman.org or call the KYRC Help Desk at 213.252.5600 for any questions.

Space is limited. Registration is due February 23, 2017 online or at 213.252.5600 or kyrc@lanterman.org.