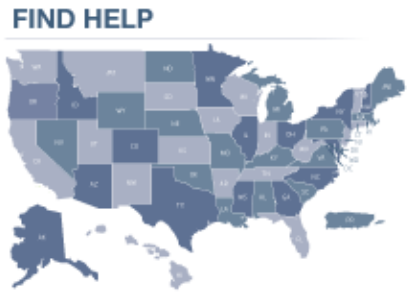
Ticket to Work

Good Jobs, Good Careers,
and a Better Self-Supporting Future

Are You A Social Security Beneficiary? Learn about Ticket to Work!

The Ticket To Work Program can help Social Security beneficiaries go to work, get a good job that may lead to a career, save more money, and become financially independent, all while they keep their health coverage. Ticket to Work is a free and voluntary program that gives beneficiaries real choices that can help them create and lead better lives. Individuals who receive Social Security benefits because of a disability probably already qualify for the program.



DID YOU RECEIVE A CALL FROM 1-855-835-0010?

The phone call you received was from Social Security's Ticket to Work program. Ticket to work is a free and voluntary Social Security program that helps people who receive disability benefits return to work or work for the first time. The call refers eligible beneficiaries to Ticket to Work's Help line at 1-866-968-7842 (V) or 1-866-833-2967 (TTY) and to http://choosework.net/mycall/. One of Social Security's contractors manages this site and the Help Line. Visit http://choosework.net/mycall/ to sign up for free information or go to the Ticket to Work program website to learn more about your options. Or, contact one of our representatives through the Ticket to Work Help Line. Be one of the many people who have connected with us for important information about work as a path to financial independence!
